At the ski resort of Grebenzen – St. Lambrecht, the new GD10 Greben10 replaces one chairlift and two surface lifts, reducing journey times by around 30 minutes.

Faster travel benefits all the skiers who use the training slope in Grebenzen (which is open throughout the winter) for training, competitions, and races.The ropeway has a maximum transport capacity of 2100 people per hour and delivers maximum comfort with 65 Diamond cabins. Designed by Pininfarina, these have large glass sides all round, offering an uninterrupted panoramic view, and carries visitors at six meters per second.
